

Your Voice on Capitol Hill

MORPAC is the voluntary, non-partisan Political Action Committee of the Mortgage Bankers Association. MORPAC's priority is to support the election and re-election of candidates and members of Congress who have an understanding of the real estate finance and housing industries. Your contribution to MORPAC is vital in making our legislative staff an effective force on Capitol Hill, as well as in assisting MBA's Legislative Committee in their efforts with members of Congress. As the only Political Action Committee that represents the interest of the real estate finance industry in our political system, MORPAC merits the continued attention and support of every MBA member.

YES. I want to support MORPAC and help elect and re-elect candidates who support the real estate finance industry.
